Narrative for Social Media, Website, Videos, News

Ver 11

I can't take this shit any longer!

Our government (and so called 'leaders') are out of control. I can no longer sit on the sidelines and watch our nation and world fall apart. I am re-launching the movement Reset America, with a new energy and focus.

- We have lost confidence in all areas of government.
- We have lost our respect as a leader among nations.
- We are terrified with the direction our nation is headed.
- Our election process is rigged and corrupt.
- Our quality of life is in jeopardy.

Are you as confused as me?

This last election had me trying to explain these contradictions...

- We had inarguably the two worst presidential candidates in history... yet less than 5% of voters backed someone other than the democratic or republican candidates.
- The approval rating in congress is the lowest in history, under 10%, yet the reelection rate is over 95%. If elections were fair and democratic, then how can this be? In other words, why doesn't supply equal demand?

The Real Problem

We listen to the news. All we hear is, "the problem is this" or "the problem is that". Not ONCE have I heard the REAL problem discussed or the UNDERLYING problem mentioned. Not even once! What's the real problem? Well, to find out, you need to buy my book (just kidding). There are only two problems and only one cause.

Problem 1: Our Election Process is Out-of-date and Corrupt

The best government money can buy.

The democrat and republican parties use every trick to rig the system and manipulate your vote. Most people are effectively shut out of the primary and general-election process. Only a fraction of voters determines the party's nominee. Yet both Clinton and Trump both "earned" their party's nomination. General elections are no different. Unless you live in a large swing-state, your vote doesn't matter either.

Furthermore, the parties abrogate anyone who tries to change the system. I ran for president in the 2008 election as a non-democrat or republican candidate. You can read the details of my experience and how I was pressured out of the race in my book, Mistaken Beliefs.

Problem 2: We only Vote for Candidates who are Democrats or Republicans

The lessor of two evils is still evil.

The second problem is that people are convinced that they can't vote for anyone except a democrat or republican. The two parties have brilliantly convinced voters of the most dangerous mistaken belief that "voting for a 3rd party is a wasted vote". We have become manipulated into voting for one of two pre-selected Manchurian candidates. Over time, ALL "top-two" voting models (the voting model that we use here in the US) evolve into choosing between the "lessor of two evils." But this doesn't need to be.

I hold the most unusual opinion that the lessor of two evils is still "evil" – and I am willing to bet that you do too. Read this excerpt from the book, Mistaken Beliefs about the most dangerous of these untruths.

We all hear about the private conversations that politicians have about how stupid we voters are. Imagine if a presidential candidate said this, "If I were to run, I'd run as a Republican. They're the dumbest group of voters in the country. They believe anything on Fox News. I could lie and they'd still eat it up. I bet my numbers would be terrific." Would you vote for him if he was the party's nominee, then continue to support him after all this controversy?

No Other Problems

There are the only two problems. These two problems are the single most important issues facing our nation. Yet, the media fails to understand or address these issues.

- Please forward this message to all media outlets and other organizations that share a similar vision of creating a fair and democratic election process.

Consider this... I wish to run for president in 2020. But I can't. I don't even qualify or stand a chance. That is, unless I sell out. I need to sell out and become a democrat or republican to be considered a viable or serious candidate. If I stick to my principles (and not be a slave to a party or special-interests), then I'm "insane". I am "crazy" for trying to change the system by running as a non-democrat or republican and not being "for-sale."

Does this make any sense to you? Perhaps I should do exactly what Trump said above during an interview with People Magazine.

The Cause

But, even after I said all of this, I'm still not addressing the real CAUSE of these problems. This is as bit more complicated to explain. It's called herd thinking. Trump is a master at this. It's easy to understand and combat, but first we need to understand what it is and its effect on our ability to make intelligent and conscious decisions that are best for ourselves.

We need a Revolution. We need it Now.

We all know there's a revolution coming. We're just waiting for the spark. Studies show that well over 80% of people don't approve of our current two-party system and want change. As a matter of fact, "Americans are Polarized" is one of the top 10 mistaken beliefs.

So, if people want change, why doesn't it happen? Until now, there hasn't been a specific plan with a realistic strategy to take an honest look at where we are and where we want to be. It's the peaceful revolution that our forefathers predicted would be needed every few generations. It's just a bit overdue because we've been expecting change to occur by the same people who created and who benefit by the existing system.

We need to Reset America

Reset America is a realistic plan to take back government and choose how we want to be governed as a society. The plan is simple to understand and easy to make happen.

We believe that our government must be “reset” by replacing our current career politician with new people: people who care more about the greater good than their own personal gain. And if you think it’s bad now, the circus in Washington is getting much worse faster when you consider how the corruption and insanity has exploded in recent years.

The only solutions that are considered and debated are those that put money into the pockets of those who pay to influence policies and the politicians who solicit and accept these bribes. There are viable solutions that cost zero dollars to implement, but they’re not even considered because they don’t benefit the people in power, like increasing campaign contributions, committee appointments, gaining favor in the media, and so on.

The Reset Plan

Here’s our plan. We propose that all Americans only vote for candidates who pledge their support on a list of principles. We endorse any candidate (from president to water commissioner) who adopts these values. If they don’t agree to these values or violate them, then, as a people, we will no longer support their campaign. It’s that simple.

- Here are the Reset Principles.

As you’ll see, this is not about any particular issue. Frankly, I don’t care how you feel about any specific issue. We all just want a system where all issues are addressed honestly, without money or people’s self-interest involved. Regardless of how passionate you may feel about a specific issue, I ASSURE YOU that nothing will change - while those in power continue to make laws for their own gain to protect the status-quo.

How did we arrive at this list? From you. These principles were created from blogs, tweets and data about what we want and what is possible. We invite you to add to this list or make your own. Just be sure to hold our politicians accountable and not be influenced by the perceived opinions of what other people may think. “We need to start thinking for ourselves and not be negatively influenced by people who have their own motives and objectives”, Mike Gozian.

- Add you own Reset Principles on our Facebook page.
- Learn more about “herd mentality” and why this is the root of all our problems and the single issue that is preventing positive change in the book, Mistaken Beliefs.

And what do we do when they don’t? Then, we replace them too with new people who pledge to support these principles. Yes, freedom isn’t free at all. It’s earned. And, a democracy is an ongoing responsibility for each of us. Does anyone really believe that we could give all this power and money to a small group of people and NOT EXPECT them to manipulate the system for their benefit?

The popular book, Freakonomics, showed that the only true predictor of human behavior is how we are incentivized. If that’s true, then who is truly to blame for our current situation? Politicians who are being human by looking out for themselves, or We the People who blindly support a system that is corrupt and threatening our nation and planet.

We need to STOP blaming Washington and START creating the change that we ALL KNOW that we want. Our democracy is only sustainable when we elect the very best people and continually hold them accountable.

How is this movement different?

Polling data proves that we're finally fed up with the garbage / crap that spews forth from Washington every day. From celebrities to business leaders, they are all calling for us to rise above the partisan bickering. We want solutions, not lies, empty promises and finger pointing. The polarization of our nation must end, or we must end.

Unfortunately, we fail to realize that this great political divide was purposely created by the Establishment. The Democrat and Republican parties, aided and abetted by the tricksters in cable news, the mainstream media, and social media, continually fuel and perpetuate this division.

We need to stitch the country back together into a unified cause. The Reset America movement does not embrace any one specific issue. And the movement embraces everyone - black, brown, red, yellow, white, and all religions and political leanings. Our goal is to unify around our common hopes and dreams for our families, our neighbors, our country and our planet. *

All people have in common the desire for honest and fair democratic elections, peace and justice, corrupt-free politics, a healthier society, protecting Mother Earth, and sustaining our way of life.

We're on a dangerous trajectory as a nation.

- We must rise above the partisan bickering and polarization that the establishment fuels for its own self-serving benefit.
- We must stop and take a fresh look at how we wish to be governed as a people.
- We must create a healthy and sustainable society if we are to avoid an inevitable collapse.

We've done it before

Cooperation with other people and groups has been successful in the past. In my early years working with 3rd parties, the Libertarian and Green Parties shared the Nobel Prize for Peace. Here's me speaking at the Green Party national convention.

What makes Me a Political Expert?

In 2008, I ran for president. During the early stages of my campaign, I was the leading independent candidate beating Hillary Clinton in online polls. I learned firsthand what it was like running for national office as a political outsider. Read my shocking story in the book, Mistaken Beliefs.

The purpose of the campaign was to bring attention to a plan to reset government by changing our election process. We achieved some major wins, like killing the national ID card program and exposing insider trading. The plan, called Reset America, gained quick popularity until I shifted my attention to other issues that were occurring in my life. We now want to take our success to a new level and with renewed energy and focus.

News agencies, including CNN, asked for interviews after the election about my experience, but I was too disappointed and demoralized with the experience to relive and relate the sordid details.

- Learn the fascinating story of the presidential candidate that the media refers to as the most revolutionary figure in U.S. politics.
- Read articles and watch TV appearances from Mike Gozian on the Reset America Facebook page.

Programs Ready to Launch

There are three programs that are close to being finished. Two are almost ready and with your help we can complete them by July 4, 2018.

1. Book, Mistaken Beliefs by Mike Gozian, Founder of Reset America

- This book is 90% complete and I need your help to finish it.
- It explains the real problem in government and it's NOT what you think it is.

Can this change happen? Yes, but first, we need to understand the fundamental cause preventing it. These are the hidden causes that prevent us from creating the very change that we WANT and we know that we NEED. These underlying obstacles are the result of 'mistaken beliefs' that we embrace as a society. These beliefs are terribly wrong, and they effect how we think and act. The book explains the basic human behaviors and other truths that need to be understood before any change can occur.

In the book, I uncover many of the unethical and illegal practices of incumbent candidates. Sadly, these are just the ones that I saw firsthand. What else they're up to behind closed doors? Who really knows how deep is the rabbit hole.

2. Documentary about this Movement

[We are in the process of producing] We are in the early stages of producing a full-length documentary based on the book, Mistaken Beliefs, and our award-winning Internet video we produced in 2006 called, Kiss Freedom Goodbye". In 2008, Mike Gozian produced a critically acclaimed online movie that exposed only a few of the many ways that the democrats and republicans rig the system to retain their grip on political power. The movie gained international attention and was honored with the following awards:

- The Telly Award for best internet commercial for political issues
- The W3 Award for best viral marketing video for activism
- The Marcom Award for best political web video
- The Ava Award for best new media political video

3. Spreading our Message

With your financial support, we can complete other projects and finish them faster, like our website and social media, candidate training and a political comedy program called, "This Weeks Lies". The Comedy Channel and Barely Political produced piolets based on earlier versions of the program just at the time when our campaign was ending. Based on the success of this movement, there is the possibility of another campaign for the presidency in 2020 to build-off our earlier success, along with a new political party called, you guessed it... Reset America.

What about the Issues? We Must Fix the Real Problem First.

It doesn't matter what you want to see changed in Washington... ending our wars, wasteful spending, lobbyists, election reform, health care, immigration, education, and so on. The book includes many examples of easy solutions that cost nothing to implement and why they are not supported by the democrat and republican parties, for example:

- You won't get peace when so many people make so much money from war.
- You're not going to get people healthy when big pharma has two lobbyists for each politician.
- You can't fight drugs and crime with a for-profit justice and prison system.
- Read more about easy solutions to our most complex problems in Mistaken Beliefs.

It's a complete waste of time to spend time or money trying to effect policy on ANY ISSUE or at ANY LEVEL of government until we first fix our election process. But, this will NOT happen with the same people who created and profit by the current system that they themselves created. Literally ANY solution to ANY problem starts by holding our leaders accountable. Then, having the common sense and personal integrity to vote for candidates outside the two main parties.

There are never only two solutions to a problem. There are, however, only two solutions that benefit the people in power and those protecting their way of life. Nothing will change so long as the only concern and motivation in congress is getting reelected. From the minute they are elected there is a non-stop drive to fundraise (i.e., solicit bribes) and consequently return the favors of their 'contributions'.

Let's Play 'Name the Party'

Still believe that change is going to happen from within the 2-partys? Consider this thought experiment. The people in power want you to believe that we are 'polarized' (another top 10 mistaken belief). They're terrified that we will look outside the 2 parties, so they point fingers at each other and persuade us to blame the other party in order to avoid taking responsibility.

Here are some common behaviors of our so-called 'leaders'. Tell me, who's guilty of these acts?... (1) the Democrats and Republicans or (2) BOTH?

- They spend money we do not have, thereby increasing our debt, and to bribe the public, while pointing fingers and avoiding responsibility for the current situation in Washington.
- They accept money from special interests in return for legislation and favors.
- They live in a separate class that's out of touch with the American people.
- They won't support valid ideas from the other party unless it benefits them more.
- They lie outright about events, facts, data and projections.
- They use their position for personal gain and expanding their power and influence.
- They manipulate news and public opinion, sensor stories and lie to the media to obtain a political advantage.
- They're afraid to tackle tough issues because the solutions aren't politically popular. So, they only address 'distraction issues.'
- They would rather see a program fail than to see their opponents win.
- Incumbents are in a perpetual campaign that starts the moment they are elected. Even now, Washington is in full-time campaign mode and all meaningful discussions about policy are on hold until after the mid-term elections. Is this the way we should prioritize policy decisions?

When you look at this hot mess from a 10,000-foot view, then we're suddenly not 'polarized' any longer. We ALL want change and ALL we want this change NOW. Does this sound like we are polarized?

Time is Running Out - Please Help Us

There are valid solutions that exist today, but they will NOT be viable TOMORROW. Become a patriot in our 2nd Revolution. Help us spread our message.

- Please Share, Like & Forward this message.
  - Contact people and groups that share the same vision for a democratic election process.
  - Please donate to Reset America so that we can complete these programs immediately.
- Together, we can take back control of our government from those who are selling-out our future for their personal gain.
  - Together, we can Reset America.
